ABOUT DR. MARKUS DÖRIG

Dr. Markus Dörig has advised Swiss and foreign clients in the insurance and reinsurance industry for more than 20 years, focussing on issues of regulatory and non-regulatory, domestic and international nature. He is acting in the capacity of both a consultant and litigator. As a litigator he has extensive experience in various fields such as coverage issues and in the underwriting business, especially in the field of credit insurance. Furthermore, he very often advises in D&O liability matters.

Dr. Markus Dörig serves on the board of directors in Switzerland of an international insurance group. He is a member of the Swiss Bar, the IBA, CILS The Center for International Legal Studies, Salzburg, the International Fiscal Association and the International Law Office (ILO).

Dr. Markus Dörig was born in 1960 and studied in Zurich and Geneva. He graduated from law school of Zurich University. In 1987 he was admitted to the Bar and thereafter worked with a law firm in Chicago. In 1996 he became one of the founding partners of his present law firm, Badertscher Attorneys at Law.
